

HICKS FOR DECEMBER.

According to Rev. J. I. Hicks, December will be a month of heavy winter storms, some of which will reach the dignity of blizzards. Rev. Hicks says: "December will open with a regular storm period well developed, with low barometric areas, cloudiness, high temperatures and rain and snow advancing eastward from the western parts of the country. About the 2d, 3d and 4th these areas of storm and precipitation will be at their fullest development, passing the central valley and reaching into eastern and southeastern States on and touching those dates. Change to much colder, constituting parts of all general storm movements in winter, will follow promptly behind these first December storms.

On Sunday and Monday, the 7th and 8th, will hinge some very active winter storms. Dashes of rain, wind and thunder southward, need not be surprising when the moon is crossing the celestial equator on the 8th; a constant tendency to cloudiness, rain, snow and winter squalls, low barometer, with a dash of cold wind and snow from the northwest.

Friday, the 12th, and Wednesday, the 17th, will constitute a storm period in which many severe storms will sweep the North Atlantic Ocean and coast, followed by cold, freezing will prevail. All through the central part of the month there will be heavy squalls of snow and sleet, which from the 19th to the 22nd will rise to the dignity of general and severe winter storms.

The last week in December will bring another series of decided storm conditions which will prevail over the first of January, and the country will enter into the new year in the midst of heavy storms of snow.

To Get Rid of a Troublesome Corn.

First soak it in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing the blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

MEDICINAL.

Kodol Digests What You Eat.

Kodol is the sensible remedy. By digesting what you eat it strengthens the body and at the same time rests the stomach. This rest soon restores perfect health. Cathartics and stimulants only reach the symptoms. It is Nature's tonic.

Five years ago a disease called dyspepsia took such a hold on me that I could scarcely go. I took quantities of pills and other medicine, but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grasped at a straw I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once, and after a few bottles an ailment which had troubled me for years was cured. GEORGE S. MAHER, Attorney-at-Law, Nocona, Tex.

It can't help but do you good. The first bottle contains 25 times as much (actual measurement) as the trial size which sells for 50c. Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Sold by all dealers.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve a soothing, healing application for piles, sores and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits.
